

Parker Suite

Named after Matthew Parker, a former archbishop of Canterbury and Master of Corpus, this WiFi-enabled suite offers the perfect setting for a small conference or served dinner. All three rooms date back to the College's foundation in 1352, with views overlooking the oldest inhabited court in Cambridge and the Chapel.

The Parker Room can also be hired for civil ceremonies, whilst the adjoining Bacon Room (bottom centre) and Marlowe Room (centre) are ideal for refreshment breaks or drinks receptions.
